

HAMILTON CONSERVATORY FOR THE ARTS

December 13, 2019

Hello Junior and Intermediate Acting parents/guardians,

The holidays are fast approaching and to celebrate our work over the course of Term One, both Junior and Intermediate will be hosting a sketch comedy night to show off their newfound skills and characters they have created!

The show will be held in our attic studio theatre - so please note that it is not an accessible space (4 flights up from the first floor), and has limited seating. We ask that attendance be limited to immediate family. Each show will be filmed and shared with you all.

See below and the attached image for more information.
